

HeinOnline

Citations:

Bluebook 20th ed.
English text of the Constitution of 1993 as amended by the Referendum of 21 October
2007 1 (1993) Title Page

ALWD 6th ed.

Chicago 7th ed.
, " Constitution of the Kyrgyz Republic,1993 : 1-2

OSCOLA 4th ed.
, " 1

Provided by:
Harvard Law School Library

- Your use of this HeinOnline PDF indicates your acceptance of HeinOnline's Terms and Conditions of the license agreement available at <https://heinonline.org/HOL/License>
- The search text of this PDF is generated from uncorrected OCR text.

Strasbourg, 7 December 2007

CDL(2007)127

Opinion no. 457/2007

Or. Engl.

EUROPEAN COMMISSION FOR DEMOCRACY THROUGH LAW
(VENICE COMMISSION)

CONSTITUTION OF THE KYRGYZ REPUBLIC

NEW WORDING
AS APPROVED BY REFERENDUM
ON 21 OCTOBER 2007***

* Unofficial translation

TABLE OF CONTENTS

SECTION I.....	3
CHAPTER ONE.....	3
FUNDAMENTS OF THE CONSTITUTIONAL ORDER.....	3
CHAPTER TWO.....	7
HUMAN AND CIVIL RIGHTS AND FREEDOMS.....	7
CHAPTER THREE.....	14
THE PRESIDENT OF THE KYRGYZ REPUBLIC.....	14
CHAPTER FOUR.....	19
LEGISLATURE OF THE KYRGYZ REPUBLIC.....	19
CHAPTER FIVE.....	25
EXECUTIVE POWER OF THE KYRGYZ REPUBLIC.....	25
CHAPTER SIX.....	30
CENTRAL STATE BODIES OF THE KYRGYZ REPUBLIC.....	30
CHAPTER SEVEN.....	31
JUDICIAL AUTHORITY IN THE KYRGYZ REPUBLIC.....	31
CHAPTER EIGHT.....	35
LOCAL SELF-GOVERNMENT.....	35
CHAPTER NINE.....	36
PROCEDURE FOR ADOPTING THE CONSTITUTION, NEW STATUTORY WORDING OF THE CONSTITUTION OR A LAW AMENDING AND SUPPLEMENTING THE PRESENT CONSTITUTION.....	36
SECTION II.....	37
SECTION III.....	39

We, the people of Kyrgyzstan, being the sole source of state power and exercising it by means of universal suffrage, proclaiming our devotion to democratic values, accord and unity of the people, recognising human and civil rights as the highest of values, aware of the importance of enhancing Kyrgyz statehood, hereby adopt the present Law "On the new statutory wording of the Constitution of the Kyrgyz Republic"

SECTION I

The Constitution of the Kyrgyz Republic adopted at the 12th session of the Supreme Council of the Republic of Kyrgyzstan on 5 May 1993 shall be reworded as follows:

"We, the People of Kyrgyzstan, supporting revival and improvement of the statehood of the Kyrgyz people;

remembering that the unity of the Kyrgyz is the basis for stability of the country and accord of the entire people of Kyrgyzstan;

following the precepts of our ancestors to live in unity, peace and accord, hereby adopt this Constitution.

CHAPTER ONE FUNDAMENTS OF THE CONSTITUTIONAL ORDER

Article 1

1. The Kyrgyz Republic (Kyrgyzstan) is a sovereign, unitary, democratic, secular, social State governed by the rule of law.
2. The sovereignty of the Kyrgyz Republic is unlimited and extends throughout its territory.
3. The people of Kyrgyzstan is the bearer of sovereignty and the sole source of state power in the Kyrgyz Republic.
4. The people of the Kyrgyz Republic shall exercise their power directly in elections and referendums as well as through a system of state bodies and local self-government bodies on the basis of the present Constitution and laws of the Kyrgyz Republic.

The President and the Jogorku Kenesh elected by the people of Kyrgyzstan shall be entitled to act on their behalf.

5. Laws and other important matters of state life may be referred to a referendum (nationwide vote). The procedure for holding a referendum shall be established by constitutional law.
6. Citizens of the Kyrgyz Republic shall elect the President of the Republic, deputies of the Jogorku Kenesh of the Republic, and their representatives to local self-government bodies.

Elections shall be free and shall be held on the basis of universal equal and direct suffrage by secret ballot. Citizens of the Kyrgyz Republic having reached the age of 18 years shall be entitled to vote.

Article 2

1. The State and its organs shall serve the whole of society, and not one particular part thereof.

2. No separate group of people, association or individual shall have the right to usurp power in the State.

3. The State, its organs, local self-government bodies and their officials shall not act outside the scope of their powers as stipulated by the present Constitution.

Article 3

1. The territory of the Kyrgyz Republic, within its existing boundaries, shall be inviolable and indivisible.

2. For the purposes of organising state government and local self-government, the territory of the Kyrgyz Republic shall be divided into administrative territorial units determined by law.

3. The cities of Bishkek and Osh shall be cities of republic significance and their status shall be determined by law.

Article 4

1. In the Kyrgyz Republic, private, state, municipal and other forms of property shall be recognised and protected.

The Kyrgyz Republic shall guarantee diversity of forms of property and their equal legal protection.

2. Property shall be inviolable. No one may be deprived of their property arbitrarily; confiscation against the will of the owner shall be admissible only by decision of a court.

3. In exceptional cases stipulated by the law, property may be alienated for the needs of the State, with prior fair compensation.

4. The Kyrgyz Republic shall protect the rights of property ownership of its citizens and legal persons, and also their property and republic property located on the territory of other States.

5. The land, its underlying resources, airspace, water bodies, forests, flora and fauna, and other natural resources shall be the property of the Kyrgyz Republic, shall be used as the basis of life and activity of the people of Kyrgyzstan and shall enjoy special protection from the State.

Land and other natural resources may also be in private, municipal or other forms of ownership.

The limits of and procedure for the exercise of rights by owners of land and natural resources and implementation of guarantees of their protection shall be determined by law.

Article 5

1. The state language of the Kyrgyz Republic shall be the Kyrgyz language.

2. In the Kyrgyz Republic, the Russian language shall be used in the capacity of an official language.

3. The Kyrgyz Republic guarantees to the representatives of all the ethnic groups forming the people of Kyrgyzstan the right to preservation of their mother tongue and creation of conditions for its study and development.

4. Any infringement of citizens' rights and freedoms on the basis of lack of knowledge of the state or official languages shall not be permitted.

Article 6

1. The Kyrgyz Republic shall have state symbols - the State Flag, Emblem and Anthem. Their description and manner of official use shall be established by law.

2. The capital of the Kyrgyz Republic shall be the city of Bishkek.

3. The unit of currency of the Kyrgyz Republic shall be the Som.

Article 7

1. State power in the Kyrgyz Republic shall be based on the following principles:

- the supremacy of the power of the people, represented and ensured by the nationally elected head of State, the President of the Kyrgyz Republic;

- the separation of state power into legislative, executive and judicial branches, and their coordinated functioning and interaction;

- the responsibility of state authorities and local self-government bodies to the people and the exercise by them of their prerogatives on behalf of the people;

- differentiation between functions and prerogatives of state authorities and local self-government bodies.

Article 8

1. In the Kyrgyz Republic no religion shall be recognised as the state religion or mandatory religion.

2. In the Kyrgyz Republic political diversity shall be recognised.

3. In the Kyrgyz Republic political parties, trade unions and other public associations may be created. The State shall ensure respect for the rights and lawful interests of public associations.

4. Participation by political parties in state affairs may take only the forms provided for in the present Constitution and the law.

5. The following shall be prohibited in the Kyrgyz Republic:

- merger of state and party institutions, as well as subordination of state activity to party programmes and decisions;

- establishment and activity of party organisations within state institutions and organisations; carrying out of party activities by civil servants, excluding cases when such activity is undertaken outside their work activities;

- membership of parties and rendering of support to any political party by those serving in military, law enforcement and judicial bodies;

- establishment of political parties on a religious basis and the pursuit by religious organisations of political goals and tasks;

- interference by religious organisations and ministers of religious faiths in the activity of state bodies;

- activity in pursuit of political goals by foreign political parties, public and religious organisations, their representatives and branches.

Article 9

1. The Kyrgyz Republic has no goals of expansion, aggression or territorial claims to be resolved by military force. It rejects the militarisation of state life and the subordination of the State and its activity to the purposes of war. The Armed Forces of Kyrgyzstan shall be formed in accordance with principles of self-defence and defensive sufficiency.

2. The right to wage war shall not be recognised except in cases of aggression against Kyrgyzstan and other States bound by responsibilities for collective defence. In each instance, permission for military units of the Armed Forces of the Kyrgyz Republic to cross the borders of Kyrgyzstan shall be granted by decision of the Jogorku Kenesh to be adopted by a majority of no less than two thirds of the total number of deputies.

3. The use of the Armed Forces to resolve internal state political issues shall be prohibited.

4. The Kyrgyz Republic shall strive for universal and just peace, mutually beneficial cooperation and the resolution of global and regional problems by peaceful means.

Article 10

A state of emergency or martial law in the Kyrgyz Republic may be imposed only in the cases and following the procedures established by the present Constitution and constitutional laws.

Article 11

1. The state budget of the Kyrgyz Republic shall consist of republic and local budgets and include the expenditures and revenues of the State.

2. The procedure for drawing up, adopting and implementing the republic and local budgets and for auditing their implementation shall be determined by law. The republic budget shall be adopted annually as a law.

3. A single tax system shall be applied on the territory of the Kyrgyz Republic. The right to establish taxes shall lie with the Jogorku Kenesh. Laws establishing new taxes and negatively affecting the situation of taxpayers shall not have retrospective force.

Article 12

1. The Constitution shall have supreme legal force and direct application in the Kyrgyz Republic.

2. Laws and other legal and regulatory acts shall be adopted on the basis of the Constitution.

3. International treaties and agreements to which the Kyrgyz Republic is a party that have entered into force under the established legal procedure and also the universally recognised principles and norms of international law shall be a constituent part of the legal system of the Kyrgyz Republic.

CHAPTER TWO HUMAN AND CIVIL RIGHTS AND FREEDOMS

SECTION I. Human rights and freedoms

Article 13

1. The fundamental rights and freedoms of an individual belong to them from birth. The rights and freedoms of an individual are constantly applicable. They are recognised as absolute and inalienable, they determine the meaning and content of the activity of the legislature, the executive and local self-government bodies and are protected by the law and the courts.
2. The personality and dignity of individuals in the Kyrgyz Republic shall be sacrosanct and inviolable.
3. In the Kyrgyz Republic everyone shall be equal before the law and the courts. No one shall be subjected to any kind of discrimination or violation of their rights and freedoms on grounds of ethnic origin, sex, race, nationality, language, religious denomination, political or religious beliefs or any other personal or social circumstances.
4. In the Kyrgyz Republic men and women shall have equal freedoms and rights and equal opportunities for their realisation.

Article 14

1. Everyone in the Kyrgyz Republic shall have the intrinsic right to life. No one may be deprived of their life.
2. Everyone shall have the right to defend their life and health and the life and health of other persons from unlawful infringements.
3. The home shall be inviolable. No one shall have the right to enter a home against the will of those residing in it.
Searches of a home and other procedural acts shall be permitted only in the cases provided for in law, and the person concerned shall be entitled to lodge a complaint in a legal procedure regarding the lawfulness of such acts.

Everyone shall have the right:

- to liberty of movement, freedom to choose their destination and residence within the territory of the Kyrgyz Republic;
- to possess, use, and dispose of their property and the results of their intellectual and creative activity;
- to economic freedom and free use of their abilities and property for any economic activity not prohibited by law;
- to freedom of labour, use of their abilities for work and choice of profession and occupation, and also the right to remuneration for labour and social protection;
- to obtain knowledge of the information about them held by state authorities and local authorities which is not covered by state secrecy or other confidential information protected by law;

- to lodge applications with state or local authorities and their officials;
- to compensation by the State for any damage caused by illegal acts of state or local authorities and their officials while discharging official duties;
- to apply to a court to have false information about themselves or members of their family refuted and withdrawn and to claim damages for material or moral damage caused by the gathering, storage and dissemination of false information;
- to secrecy of correspondence, telephone conversations and telegraphic and other communications;
- to freely gather, store and use information freely and to disseminate it orally, in writing or by another means;
- to inviolability of one's private life, to respect and protection of their honour and dignity;
- to freely determine their nationality.

4. The gathering, storage, use and dissemination of confidential information about a person without their consent, except in cases specified by law, shall be prohibited.

5. Everyone shall be guaranteed freedom of religion and atheistic views.

6. Everyone shall have the right to freedom of thought, speech and press, as well as to unimpeded expression of those thoughts and beliefs. No one shall be forced to express their opinions and beliefs.

Article 15

1. No one may be arrested or held in custody except by court decision and solely on the basis of and in accordance with the procedures established by the law.

2. Any detained person shall be brought before a court, within 48 hours, to establish the lawfulness of their detention.

3. Any detained person shall be informed urgently of the grounds for their detention, have their rights explained and given an opportunity, from the moment of detention, to protect themselves personally and use legal assistance from a lawyer.

4. Everyone shall be guaranteed judicial protection of their rights and freedoms.

In the event of a public or other accusation, everyone shall have the right to defend their honour, dignity, business reputation and their rights in court; under no circumstances shall they be denied such judicial protection.

5. A person charged with a criminal offence shall not be obliged to prove their innocence. Any doubt concerning their guilt must be interpreted to the benefit of the accused.

No one shall be obliged to testify against themselves, their spouse or close relatives as determined by law. The law may provide for other cases in which they are dispensed from the obligation to testify.

The burden of proof of guilt in criminal and administrative cases shall be on the accuser.

Evidence obtained in violation of the law shall not be recognised and may not be used in court.

6. Everyone shall have the right to have their case examined by a court with the participation of jurors in cases stipulated by law.

7. Everyone shall be presumed innocent of committing a criminal offence until found guilty by a court verdict having entered into force.

8. Any actions aimed at attaching responsibility for a crime to a person before a verdict has been pronounced by a court shall not be permitted and are grounds for compensation to the victim through the court for the material and moral damage suffered.

9. No one shall be convicted of a crime solely on the basis of their own confession.

10. Everyone convicted of a crime shall have the right to a review of their conviction and sentence by a higher tribunal under the procedure established by law, as well as to seek a pardon or commutation of punishment.

11. No one shall bear legal liability twice for the same offence.

12. Application of the criminal law by analogy shall not be permitted.

13. A law establishing or aggravating the liability of a person shall not have retroactive force. No one may be held guilty of any act which did not constitute a criminal offence at the time when it was committed. If, subsequent to the committing of an offence, provision is made by law for the removal of the offence or the imposing of a lighter penalty, the new law shall be applied.

14. The rights of victims of crimes and abuses of power shall be protected by law. The State shall guarantee them access to justice and compensation for the harm or damage caused.

15. Everyone shall have the right to appeal to international courts.

Article 16

1. In the Kyrgyz Republic, folk customs and traditions which do not contradict human rights and freedoms shall be supported by the State.

2. The family shall be the origin of society; family, fatherhood, motherhood and childhood shall be the concern of the whole of society and subject to preferential protection by law; child care and upbringing shall be a natural right and civic duty of parents. Able-bodied children having attained their majority shall be under obligation to care for their parents.

3. The State shall provide maintenance, upbringing and education for orphans and children deprived of parental support.

4. Respect for the elderly and caring for family and close relatives shall be a sacrosanct obligation for the people of Kyrgyzstan.

Article 17

1. The rights and freedoms established by the present Constitution are not exhaustive and shall not be interpreted as negating or diminishing other universally recognised human rights and freedoms.

2. Everyone shall observe the Constitution and the laws of the Kyrgyz Republic and shall respect the rights, freedoms, honour and dignity of others.

3. No one shall restrict the rights and freedoms of others in the exercise of their own rights and freedoms.

Article 18

1. In the Kyrgyz Republic, no laws abolishing human rights and freedoms shall be issued.

2. Restrictions of rights and freedoms shall be permitted under the Constitution and laws solely for the purposes of protecting the rights and freedoms of others, public safety and order, territorial integrity and the constitutional order. Where such measures are taken, constitutional rights and freedoms shall not be affected in their essence.

Article 19

1. Restrictions affecting the physical and moral inviolability of an individual shall be permitted solely by a court sentence pronounced on the basis of law as punishment for the committing of a crime. No one may be tortured, subjected to mistreatment or inhuman or degrading punishment.

2. The conducting of medical, biological or psychological experiments on people without their properly expressed and verified voluntary consent shall be prohibited.

3. The Kyrgyz Republic may grant asylum under the procedure established by law to foreign citizens and stateless persons persecuted for political reasons.

SECTION II.           Citizenship. Rights and duties of a citizen

Article 20

1. The affiliation of an individual to the Kyrgyz Republic and their status shall be determined by citizenship.

2. Every citizen of the Kyrgyz Republic shall enjoy rights and bear obligations by virtue of their citizenship.

3. No citizen of the Kyrgyz Republic may be deprived of their citizenship or their right to change their citizenship. Citizens of the Kyrgyz Republic shall be recognised as citizens of other States in accordance with the laws and international treaties of the Kyrgyz Republic.

4. Kyrgyz people living outside the Kyrgyz Republic shall have the right, regardless of their citizenship of another State, to acquire citizenship of the Kyrgyz Republic under a simplified procedure. The procedure and conditions for acquiring citizenship of the Kyrgyz Republic shall be defined by law.

5. A citizen of the Kyrgyz Republic may not be expelled beyond the republic's borders or extradited to another State.

6. The Kyrgyz Republic shall guarantee its citizens defence and protection beyond its borders.

Article 21

1. Citizens of the Kyrgyz Republic shall have the right to freedom of association.
2. Associations of citizens shall be prohibited from forming militarised forces.
3. Citizens of the Kyrgyz Republic and their associations shall be entitled to engage in any actions or activity except those prohibited or restricted by the present Constitution and the laws of the Kyrgyz Republic.
4. It shall be the duty of the State, all its bodies, local self-government bodies and their officials to provide for protection of the rights and freedoms of citizens, to prevent rights infringements and to restore violated rights.
5. The Kyrgyz Republic shall guarantee judicial defence of all rights and freedoms of citizens established by the present Constitution and the laws of the Kyrgyz Republic.
6. Laws of the Kyrgyz Republic concerning the rights and obligations of citizens shall be applied equally to all citizens and shall not bestow advantages and privileges on anyone, except in cases provided for by the present Constitution and laws on the social protection of citizens.

Article 22

Everyone shall be obliged to pay taxes and dues under the procedure and in the cases provided for by law.

Article 23

1. Citizens of the Kyrgyz Republic shall have the right to:
  - participate in the discussion and adoption of laws and decisions of republic-wide and local significance;
  - to elect and to be elected to bodies of state government and local self-government and to participate in referendums in accordance with the procedures provided for by constitutional law.
2. Citizens of the Kyrgyz Republic shall have the right to hold kurultayi [assemblies], which is the sacred historic tradition of the Kyrgyz people, on issues regarding the performance of state authorities, local self-government bodies and other important issues. The decision of a people's kurultay shall be sent to the respective bodies as recommendations.
3. Citizens of the Kyrgyz Republic shall have equal rights to take up posts in government and municipal services. The procedure for employment in government and municipal services shall be established by law.

Article 24

1. Defence of the Fatherland shall be the sacrosanct right and obligation of citizens of the Kyrgyz Republic.
2. The grounds and procedures for exemption from military service or its replacement by alternative service shall be established by law.

Article 25

Citizens of the Kyrgyz Republic shall have the right to assemble peacefully, without weapons and conduct political meetings, rallies, marches, demonstrations and pickets on condition of prior notification to state authorities or local self-government bodies. The procedure and conditions for conducting them shall be established by law.

Article 26

A citizen of the Kyrgyz Republic shall have the right to travel freely beyond the borders of the republic and to return home without hindrance.

Article 27

1. Social security in old age, in sickness and in the event of disability or loss of the main provider shall be guaranteed to citizens of the Kyrgyz Republic under a procedure and in the cases established by the law.

2. Pensions and social security in keeping with the economic resources of society shall ensure a standard of living no lower than the minimum subsistence wage established by law.

3. Voluntary social insurance and establishment of additional forms of social security and charity shall be promoted.

Article 28

1. Citizens of the Kyrgyz Republic shall have the right to freedom of labour, use of their abilities for work and choice of profession and occupation, to job protection and working conditions complying with health and safety requirements, and also the right to remuneration for labour and social protection no lower than the minimum subsistence wage established by law.

2. The State shall concern itself with basic and further vocational training for citizens and facilitate activities of international organisations aimed at reinforcing the right to work.

3. Child labour and forced labour of adults shall be prohibited, except in cases of war, clearing up after natural disasters, epidemics or other extraordinary circumstances, as well as in accordance with execution of punishment ordered by a court.

Article 29

Citizens of the Kyrgyz Republic shall have the right to participate in the drawing up of the republic and local budgets, as well as the right to be informed of actual budget expenditures. The procedure for their participation shall be prescribed by law.

Article 30

Citizens of the Kyrgyz Republic shall have the right to strike.

The procedure and conditions for holding strikes shall be prescribed by law.

Article 31

1. Citizens of the Kyrgyz Republic shall have the right to time off.

2. The maximum duration of working hours, the minimum weekly time off and annual paid leave, as well as other basic conditions for exercising the right to time off shall be prescribed by law.

Article 32

1. Every citizen of the Kyrgyz Republic shall have the right to education.
2. General basic education shall be compulsory and free of charge; everyone shall have the right to receive it in state and municipal educational institutions.
3. The State shall create conditions for teaching every citizen the state language and two foreign languages, beginning from pre-school education and continuing up to basic education level.
4. Every citizen shall have the right to both free and paid education.

Article 33

Citizens of the Kyrgyz Republic shall have the right to housing. This right shall be afforded through the development of state-owned, municipal and individual housing stocks and the housing stock of organisations and by encouraging citizens to acquire dwellings under the conditions and the procedure established by legislation.

Article 34

1. Citizens of the Kyrgyz Republic shall have the right to health protection.
2. First aid and medical assistance for certain illnesses determined by law as well as medical services to socially vulnerable sectors of the population shall be free of charge; everyone shall have the right to receive medical assistance in state and private medical establishments.

The procedure for receiving medical assistance shall be regulated by law.

Article 35

Citizens of the Kyrgyz Republic shall have the right to a healthy, safe environment and to compensation for damage caused to their health or property by activities involving the exploitation of natural assets.

Article 36

1. Culture, art, literature, science and the media shall enjoy freedom.
2. The State shall protect historical monuments, care for and create the necessary conditions for the development of literature, art, science, media and sports.
3. Citizens shall have the right of access to cultural assets and to engage in artistic and scientific activities.

Article 37

Social activity of the State shall not result in the substitution of state guardianship for the citizen's own economic freedom and activity and the citizen's possibilities of achieving economic wellbeing for themselves and their family.

Article 38

For the purposes of extrajudicial resolution of disputes arising from civil law relations, citizens of the Kyrgyz Republic shall have the right to establish courts of commercial arbitration.

The powers of commercial arbitration courts and the procedure governing their formation and activities shall be defined by law.

Article 39

In the Kyrgyz Republic citizens shall have the right to establish courts of aksakaly [elders].

The procedure for establishing courts of aksakaly, their powers and activities shall be defined by law.

Article 40

1. Everyone shall have the right to qualified legal assistance. In the cases provided for by law, legal assistance shall be provided at the expense of the State.

2. The organisation and activities of bars as a self-regulated professional society of lawyers and also the rights, obligations and responsibilities of lawyers shall be defined by law.

Article 41

The publication of laws and other legal and regulatory acts concerning human and civil rights, freedoms and obligations shall be a mandatory prerequisite for their application.

CHAPTER THREE
THE PRESIDENT OF THE KYRGYZ REPUBLIC*Article 42

1. The President of the Kyrgyz Republic shall be the head of State and the highest official of the Kyrgyz Republic.

2. The President of the Kyrgyz Republic shall be the symbol of the unity of the people and state power, the guarantor of the Constitution of the Kyrgyz Republic and of human and civil rights and freedoms.

3. The President of the Kyrgyz Republic shall define the fundamental thrusts of state domestic and foreign policy, represent the Kyrgyz Republic within the country and in international relations, take measures to preserve the sovereignty and territorial integrity of the Kyrgyz Republic and ensure the unity and continuity of state power and the coordinated functioning and interaction of state bodies and their accountability to the people.

SECTION I. Election of the PresidentArticle 43

1. The President shall be elected for a term of five years.

2. The same person may not be elected President for more than two consecutive terms.

Article 44

1. A citizen of the Kyrgyz Republic who is no younger than 35 years of age and no older than 65 years of age, who has a command of the state language and who has been resident in the republic for no less than 15 years in total may be elected President. A citizen with a previous criminal conviction which has not been expunged or quashed in accordance with the procedure established by law may not be elected President.

2. There shall be no limit on the number of candidates for the office of President of the Kyrgyz Republic. A person who has registered and collected no fewer than 50,000 voters' signatures may be a presidential candidate.

The procedure for presidential elections shall be defined by law.

Article 45

1. Upon entering office, the President shall take an oath to the people of Kyrgyzstan:

"I, ..., assuming the office of the President of the Kyrgyz Republic, before my People and Homeland do swear:

to sacredly observe and uphold the Constitution and laws;

to defend the sovereignty and independence of the Kyrgyz State;

to respect and guarantee the rights and freedoms of all citizens of the Kyrgyz Republic; with honour and tirelessly to fulfil the high responsibility of President entrusted to me by the confidence of the entire people."

2. The term of the presidential mandate shall begin from the moment of taking the oath. The powers of the President shall cease at the moment when the newly elected President takes office.

3. The President shall suspend his activity in political parties and organisations while serving the term of office until the beginning of new presidential elections.

SECTION II. Powers of the President

Article 46

1. The President:

1) shall appoint the Prime Minister and members of the Government in accordance with the procedure set forth in the Constitution;

2) shall receive tenders of resignation from the Prime Minister, the Government or an individual member of the Government; shall take decisions on the resignation of the Prime Minister or the Government;

3) on his own initiative or at the proposal of the Prime Minister, shall dismiss from office a member of the Government;

4) shall appoint, at the proposal of the Prime Minister, the heads of administrative departments and other executive authorities; shall be entitled, on his own initiative or at the proposal of the Prime Minister, to dismiss from office a head of an administrative department or other executive authority;

5) in consultation with the Prime Minister, shall appoint heads of local state administrations; shall dismiss them from office;

6) shall appoint the Secretary of State and determine his status and powers; shall form the Presidential Administration to carry out his work;

7) shall establish and head the Security Council and other coordinated bodies;

8) shall establish the State defence service and the National Guard, which are subordinate to him;

9) shall form, disband and reorganise state organs directly subordinate and accountable to the President, and appoint and dismiss their heads;

10) shall determine terms of remuneration for state and municipal civil servants.

2. The President:

1) shall submit to the Jogorku Kenesh candidates for election as judges of the Constitutional Court;

2) at the proposal of the National Council for the Judiciary, shall submit to the Jogorku Kenesh candidates for election as judges of the Supreme Court;

3) shall appoint and dismiss local court judges at the proposal of the National Council for the Judiciary; shall give consent for criminal prosecutions or administrative proceedings against local court judges, administered under judicial procedure;

4) shall appoint with the consent of the Jogorku Kenesh the Prosecutor General; shall appoint at the proposal of the Prosecutor General the deputies of the Prosecutor General and dismiss them from office;

5) shall submit to the Jogorku Kenesh candidates for election as the Chairman of the National Bank and appoint at the proposal of the Chairman of the National Bank the deputy chairmen and members of the board of the National Bank; shall dismiss them from office;

6) shall appoint with the consent of the Jogorku Kenesh the Chairman of the Central Commission on Elections and Referendums; shall appoint one-half of the members of the Central Commission on Elections and Referendums; shall dismiss them from office;

7) shall submit proposals to the Jogorku Kenesh for the election and dismissal of the Chairman of the Chamber of Audit and its auditors.

3. The President:

1) shall direct the foreign policy of the Kyrgyz Republic;

2) shall conduct negotiations and sign international treaties of the Kyrgyz Republic;

3) shall sign instruments of ratification;

4) shall appoint diplomatic representatives of the Kyrgyz Republic in foreign States and international organisations after consultations with the corresponding committee of the Jogorku Kenesh and recall them; shall accept the credentials and letters of recall of the heads of diplomatic missions of foreign States and representatives of international organisations;

5) shall decide on questions of granting and forfeiture of citizenship in the Kyrgyz Republic and of granting political asylum.

4. The President:

1) shall confer state awards of the Kyrgyz Republic;

2) shall confer honorary titles of the Kyrgyz Republic;

3) shall confer higher military ranks, diplomatic ranks, class ranks and other special titles;

4) shall grant pardons.

5. The President:

1) shall submit draft laws to the Jogorku Kenesh;

2) shall sign and promulgate laws; shall return laws with his objections to the Jogorku Kenesh of the Kyrgyz Republic;

3) shall address the people in yearly messages on the state of affairs in the country, to be delivered at a sitting of the Jogorku Kenesh.

4) shall be entitled to suspend the action of legal and regulatory acts of the Government and other executive authorities.

6. The President:

1) shall be entitled to convene an early sitting of the Jogorku Kenesh and to determine issues for examination;

2) shall call a referendum on his own initiative or decide to call a referendum on the initiative of no fewer than 300,000 voters or a majority of the total number of deputies of the Jogorku Kenesh;

3) shall call elections to the Jogorku Kenesh in the cases set forth in the present Constitution;

4) shall call elections to local Keneshes and implement their early dissolution in the cases set forth in law;

7. The President shall give warning, on grounds specified by constitutional law, of the possibility of introducing a state of emergency, and where necessary shall introduce a state of emergency in individual localities without prior declaration, providing prompt notification to the Jogorku Kenesh;

8. The President shall declare general or partial mobilisation; shall announce a state of war in the event of aggression or direct threat of aggression to the Kyrgyz Republic and promptly submit this issue for consideration by the Jogorku Kenesh; shall declare a state of war in the interests of the defence of the country and the safety of its citizens and promptly submit this issue for consideration by the Jogorku Kenesh;

9. The President shall be the Commander-in-Chief of the Armed Forces of the Kyrgyz Republic, and shall appoint and dismiss high-ranking commanders of the Armed Forces of the Kyrgyz Republic;

10. The President shall ensure that the state authorities responsible for defence, national security, internal affairs and foreign affairs exercise their powers; shall approve regulations on them at the proposal of the Prime Minister; shall appoint and dismiss their heads and deputy heads;

11. The President shall exercise other prerogatives set forth in the present Constitution.

Article 47

1. The President shall issue decrees and orders on the basis of and pursuant to the Constitution and laws.

2. Decrees and orders of the President shall be executed throughout the territory of the Kyrgyz Republic.

Article 48

The President shall be entitled to transfer powers specified in sub-paragraph 2 of paragraph 3 of Article 46 of the present Constitution to the Prime Minister, members of the Government and other officials.

Article 49

1. The President shall enjoy the right of immunity. The honour and dignity of the President shall be protected by law.

2. Support, service and protection for the President, as well as his family, shall be provided at state expense.

Article 50

1. The powers of the President may be terminated early as a result of resignation by his own tender, upon his dismissal from office in accordance with the procedure provided for in the present Constitution or in the event of his inability to exercise his powers as a result of illness or death.

2. If the President is unable to carry out his duties as a result of illness, the Jogorku Kenesh shall adopt a decision on early dismissal of the President from office based on the conclusion of a state medical commission created by it, with a vote of no less than two-thirds of the total number of the deputies of the Jogorku Kenesh.

Article 51

1. The President may be dismissed from office only on the basis of a charge made by the Jogorku Kenesh of high treason or relating to the committing of another particularly serious crime, confirmed by the conclusion of the Prosecutor General that the acts of the President presented the characteristics of a crime and the conclusion of the Constitutional Court of the Kyrgyz Republic that established procedure for bringing the accusation has been observed.

2. A decision by the Jogorku Kenesh to bring a charge against the President for his dismissal from office must be taken by a majority of no less than two-thirds of the total number of deputies of the Jogorku Kenesh on the initiative of a majority of the total number of deputies, and shall be supported by a conclusion of a special commission formed by the Jogorku Kenesh.

3. A decision of the Jogorku Kenesh to dismiss the President from office must be taken by a majority of no less than three-quarters of the total number of deputies of the Jogorku Kenesh, no later than three months after the bringing of the charge against the President by the Jogorku Kenesh. If a decision is not reached by the Jogorku Kenesh within that period, the charge shall be deemed refuted.

Article 52

1. If the President is unable to exercise his powers for reasons stated in the present Constitution, the Toraga [Speaker] of the Jogorku Kenesh shall exercise those powers until a new President is elected. If the Toraga is unable to exercise the powers of the President, the Prime Minister shall exercise those powers. Elections for a new President must in this case be conducted within three months following the termination of powers of the President.

2. Officials exercising the powers of the President do not have the right to call an early election of the Jogorku Kenesh, to call a referendum, to terminate the authority of the Government or to make proposals for amending and supplementing the Constitution.

Article 53

1. All former Presidents, except those who have been dismissed from office under the procedure established in Article 51 of the present Constitution, shall have the title of ex-President of the Kyrgyz Republic.

2. The status of ex-Presidents of the Kyrgyz Republic shall be established by law.

CHAPTER FOUR LEGISLATURE OF THE KYRGYZ REPUBLIC

SECTION I. The Jogorku Kenesh

Article 54

1. The Jogorku Kenesh - the Parliament of the Kyrgyz Republic - shall be a representative body exercising legislative power and supervisory functions within the limits of its competence.

2. The Jogorku Kenesh shall consist of 90 deputies, who shall be elected for a five-year term on the basis of party lists.

Any citizen who is no younger than 25 years of age and has the right to participate in elections may be elected as a Deputy of the Jogorku Kenesh.

A person with a previous criminal conviction, which has not been expunged or quashed in accordance with the procedure established by law, may not be elected as a deputy of the Jogorku Kenesh.

The procedure for election of deputies of the Jogorku Kenesh shall be established by law.

Article 55

1. The Jogorku Kenesh shall assemble no less than two-thirds of its constitutionally determined membership for its first sitting no later than 30 days after election.
2. The oldest member of the Jogorku Kenesh shall open the first session of the Jogorku Kenesh.
3. The powers of the deputies of the Jogorku Kenesh shall commence from the day of taking the oath.
4. The powers of the previous Jogorku Kenesh shall cease from the day of the first sitting of the newly convened Jogorku Kenesh and the taking of the oath by the deputies with no less than two-thirds of the members present.

Article 56

1. A deputy of the Jogorku Kenesh shall enjoy immunity. They may not be prosecuted for opinions expressed in the course of their activities as a deputy or for the outcome of voting in the Jogorku Kenesh. A deputy may not be detained or arrested, subjected to searches or personal inspection except if caught at the scene where a crime has been committed. The institution of criminal or administrative proceedings against a deputy administered under judicial procedure shall be permitted only with the consent of the Jogorku Kenesh except where particularly serious crimes have been committed.
2. A deputy of the Jogorku Kenesh may not simultaneously hold a post in other state or municipal service, may not engage in entrepreneurial activity and may not be a member of the governing body or supervisory council of a commercial organisation.

A deputy of the Jogorku Kenesh shall have the right to engage in scientific, teaching or other creative activity, if such activity does not interfere with the fulfilment of their duties as a deputy.

Article 57

1. The powers of a deputy of the Jogorku Kenesh shall cease simultaneously with the ceasing of powers of the Jogorku Kenesh.
2. In addition to the ground stipulated in paragraph 1 of the present Article the powers of a deputy of the Jogorku Kenesh shall be terminated early in the following cases: written notification by them of resignation of their powers as a deputy; renunciation of citizenship; loss of citizenship or acquisition of another citizenship; acceptance of a job or failure to abandon work incompatible with the exercise of their powers as a deputy; declaration of the elections as invalid; departure to a permanent place of residence outside the borders of the Kyrgyz Republic; a court decision declaring the deputy not legally capable; entry into force of a court decision declaring the deputy missing or deceased, or death of the deputy; entry into force of a guilty verdict of a court against them; absence from sittings of the Jogorku Kenesh for more than 30 working days for no good reason during one session, and also the deputy's departure or exclusion from the political party from which they were elected in accordance with the law; ceasing of activity of the political party from which they were elected in accordance with the law.

Early termination of powers of a deputy of the Jogorku Kenesh on the aforementioned grounds shall be executed by a resolution of the Central Commission on Elections and Referendums, which shall be adopted no later than 30 calendar days from the date of accrual of cause.

3. The procedure for replacing a mandate falling vacant as the result of early termination of powers of a deputy shall be defined by law.

SECTION II. Powers of the Jogorku Kenesh

Article 58

1. The following functions shall lie within the competence of the Jogorku Kenesh:

1) amending and supplementing the present Constitution following the procedure established therein;

2) adopting laws;

3) giving official interpretations of laws adopted by it;

4) altering the borders of the Kyrgyz Republic;

5) approving the republic budget and the report on its implementation submitted by the Government;

6) deciding matters of administrative and territorial structure of the Kyrgyz Republic;

7) calling presidential elections;

8) approving state-wide socio-economic development programmes submitted by the Government;

9) at the proposal of the Prime-Minister, approving the structure of the Government;

10) expressing a vote of no-confidence in the Government or in an individual member of Government in the cases provided for in the present Constitution;

11) electing and dismissing judges of the Constitutional Court at the proposal of the President; giving consent for criminal and administrative proceedings against them administered under judicial procedure;

12) electing and dismissing judges of the Supreme Court at the proposal of the President, giving consent for criminal and administrative proceedings against them administered under judicial procedure;

13) hearing addresses and statements by the President;

14) giving consent for the appointment of the Prosecutor General; giving consent for criminal and administrative proceedings against him administered under judicial procedure;

15) electing the Chairman of the National Bank at the proposal of the President;

16) giving consent for the appointment of the Chairman of the Central Commission on Elections and Referendums;

17) electing one-half of the members of the Central Commission on Elections and Referendums; dismissing them under the procedure and in cases provided for by law;

18) electing and dismissing the Chairman of the Chamber of Audit at the proposal of the President;

19) electing and dismissing the entire staff of the Chamber of Audit at the proposal of the President;

20) electing and dismissing the Ombudsman (Akiykatchy); giving consent for criminal and administrative proceedings against him administered under judicial procedure;

21) electing and dismissing deputies of the Ombudsman (Akiykatchy) at the proposal of the Ombudsman (Akiykatchy); giving consent for criminal and administrative proceedings against them administered under judicial procedure;

22) ratifying and denouncing international treaties;

23) introducing states of emergency, authorising or annulling decrees of the President on this matter;

24) deciding matters of war and peace; introducing the state of war, declaring a state of war and authorising or annulling decrees of the President on these matters;

25) deciding matters concerning the possibility of using the Armed Forces of the Kyrgyz Republic beyond the borders of the republic where it is necessary to fulfil international treaty obligations in support of peace and security;

26) establishing military ranks, diplomatic ranks, class categories and other special titles of the Kyrgyz Republic;

27) establishing state awards and honorary titles of the Kyrgyz Republic;

28) issuing acts of amnesty;

29) hearing addresses by leaders and other representatives of foreign States or international organisations;

30) hearing annual reports of the Constitutional Court, the Supreme Court and the Ombudsman (Akiykatchy);

31) hearing annual reports of the Prime Minister on the work of the Government, the Prosecutor General, the Chairman of the National Bank and the Chairman of the Chamber of Audit.

32) bringing charges against the President; dismissing the President from office.

2. The hearing of annual reports of officials specified in the present Article shall be conducted in accordance with the rules established in the present Constitution and laws on the autonomy and independence of the respective bodies and their officials.

3. The Jogorku Kenesh shall exercise other powers provided for in the present Constitution and laws.

Article 59

1. The Jogorku Kenesh shall adopt laws on issues envisaged in sub-paragraphs 1, 3-6, 9, 22-28 of paragraph 1 of Article 58 of the present Constitution; on other issues, including the supervision of implementation of laws, it shall adopt resolutions.
2. The laws and resolutions of the Jogorku Kenesh shall be adopted by a majority of votes of the total number of deputies of the Jogorku Kenesh unless the present Constitution provides for another procedure for their adoption.

Article 60

1. The Jogorku Kenesh shall elect from among its members a Toraga [Speaker] of the Jogorku Kenesh and the deputies of the Toraga.
2. The Toraga of the Jogorku Kenesh shall:
  - 1) conduct the sittings of the Jogorku Kenesh;
  - 2) handle the overall management of preparation of issues for consideration during sittings of the Jogorku Kenesh;
  - 3) sign acts adopted by the Jogorku Kenesh;
  - 4) represent the Jogorku Kenesh in the Kyrgyz Republic and beyond its borders, ensure interaction of the Jogorku Kenesh with the President, the Government, the executive and judicial branches of state power and local self-government bodies;
  - 5) exercise general management and supervision of the activity of the Jogorku Kenesh apparatus;
  - 6) exercise other powers relating to the organisation of the activity of the Jogorku Kenesh entrusted to him under the Rules of Procedure of the Jogorku Kenesh.
3. The Toraga of the Jogorku Kenesh shall be elected by secret ballot by a majority of votes of the total number of deputies of the Jogorku Kenesh.

The Toraga shall be accountable to the Jogorku Kenesh and may be removed from office by a decision of the Jogorku Kenesh adopted by a majority vote of no less than two-thirds of the total number of deputies of the Jogorku Kenesh.

4. The deputies of the Toraga of the Jogorku Kenesh shall be elected by secret ballot, shall fulfil specific functions on the instructions of the Toraga and shall deputise for the Toraga in his absence. Deputies of the Toraga shall be dismissed in accordance with the procedure provided for in the Rules of Procedure of the Jogorku Kenesh.

Article 61

1. The Jogorku Kenesh shall form committees from among its deputies and also ad hoc committees and determine their composition.
2. Committees of the Jogorku Kenesh shall be responsible for preparing and making preliminary examinations of matters lying within the competence of the Jogorku Kenesh and supervise the implementation of the laws and resolutions adopted.

3. Laws and legal and regulatory acts of the Jogorku Kenesh shall be adopted after preliminary examination of their drafts by the corresponding committees of the Jogorku Kenesh.

4. The appointment and election of officials lying within the competence of the Jogorku Kenesh and the giving of consent by the Jogorku Kenesh for appointments to state authority posts and dismissals from office shall proceed on the basis of the conclusions of the corresponding committees of the Jogorku Kenesh.

Article 62

1. The sessions of the Jogorku Kenesh shall be conducted in the form of sittings and held from the first working day of September until the last working day of June of the following year.

2. The sessions of the Jogorku Kenesh shall be conducted in public, unless the nature of issues under consideration requires closed sessions.

3. The Toraga of the Jogorku Kenesh shall convene extraordinary sessions of the Jogorku Kenesh at the proposal of the President, the Government or no less than one third of the deputies of the Jogorku Kenesh.

4. A sitting of the Jogorku Kenesh shall have a quorum if the majority of the total number of deputies of the Jogorku Kenesh are in attendance.

5. Decisions of the Jogorku Kenesh shall be adopted during sittings in votes by the deputies.

Article 63

1. The Jogorku Kenesh may be dissolved by a decision of self-dissolution.

2. A decision on self-dissolution may be adopted by no less than two-thirds of the total number of deputies of the Jogorku Kenesh.

3. The President shall call early elections for deputies of the Jogorku Kenesh, so that the newly elected Jogorku Kenesh convenes its first sitting no later than 60 days after the date when early elections were called.

SECTION III. Legislative Activity

Article 64

The right of legislative initiate shall lie with:
30,000 voters (a popular initiative);
the President;
the deputies of the Jogorku Kenesh;
the Government.

Article 65

1. Draft laws shall be introduced in the Jogorku Kenesh.

2. If the President or the Government deems that a draft law requires urgent attention, the Jogorku Kenesh shall be required to examine that draft law ahead of others on the docket.

3. Draft laws providing for increased expenditure to be covered from the national budget may be adopted by the Jogorku Kenesh after the Government has determined a source of funding.
4. Constitutional laws, laws interpreting constitutional laws, laws amending and supplementing constitutional laws and laws altering state borders shall be adopted by the Jogorku Kenesh after no fewer than two readings by a majority of no less than two-thirds of the total number of deputies of the Jogorku Kenesh.
5. The adoption of constitutional laws during states of emergency and martial law shall be prohibited.
6. No laws restricting freedom of speech and freedom of the press may be adopted.

Article 66

1. A law adopted by the Jogorku Kenesh shall be sent within one month to the President for signature.
2. The President, no later than one month after receiving the law, shall sign it or return it with his objections to the Jogorku Kenesh for re-examination.
3. Laws returned by the President shall be re-examined no sooner than within three months. This rule shall not apply if the Jogorku Kenesh concurs with the views expressed by the President.
4. If, upon re-examination, the law is approved in its previously adopted version by a majority vote of no less than two-thirds or, for the laws indicated in Article 65 paragraph 4 of the present Constitution, no less than three-quarters of the total number of deputies, the law in question shall be signed by the President within 14 days after its receipt.
If the law approved in its previously adopted version is not signed within the stipulated period of time, it shall be deemed signed and shall be published.

Article 67

A law shall enter into force upon the expiry of ten days from its publication if no other provision is made in the law itself or in a law on the procedure for its entry into force.

CHAPTER FIVE EXECUTIVE POWER OF THE KYRGYZ REPUBLIC

Article 68

1. Executive power in the Kyrgyz Republic shall be exercised by the Government, ministries subordinate to it, state committees, administrative departments, other executive authorities and local state administrations.
2. The Government shall be the highest body of state executive power in the Kyrgyz Republic.
3. The activity of the Government shall be headed by the Prime Minister. The Government shall consist of the Prime Minister, vice-prime ministers, ministers and chairmen of state committees.

The structure of the Government shall be defined by the Prime Minister and include ministries and state committees of the Kyrgyz Republic. The structure of the Government shall be approved by the Jogorku Kenesh.

SECTION I. The Government

Article 69

1. Deputies belonging to the political party which received over 50% of mandates of deputies in elections to the Jogorku Kenesh shall propose to the President a candidate for the office of Prime Minister.

A candidate for the office of Prime Minister shall be submitted no later than five working days after the first session of the newly elected Jogorku Kenesh.

The President shall appoint the Prime Minister no later than three days after submission of the candidate.

2. The appointed Prime Minister shall determine the structure of the Government and candidates for Government posts.

The structure of the Government shall be submitted to the Jogorku Kenesh by the Prime Minister within seven working days of his appointment. Candidates for government posts, excluding government members responsible for defence, national security, internal affairs and foreign affairs shall be submitted to the President within 5 working days following approval of the structure of the Government.

The President shall appoint the members of the Government no later than 3 days after submission of the candidates.

Article 70

1. If the deputies belonging to the political party which received over 50% of mandates of deputies of the Jogorku Kenesh do not submit a candidate for Prime Minister or the appointed Prime Minister does not submit the structure of the Government for approval by the Jogorku Kenesh or does not submit candidates for government posts and also if no one party received over 50% of mandates, the President shall instruct the deputies from another political party to submit a candidate within 5 working days for the office of Prime Minister by forming a coalition of the majority of deputies.

2. If deputies from the political party which was instructed to submit a candidate for Prime Minister do not submit a candidate for the office of Prime Minister or the Prime Minister does not submit the structure of the Government for approval by the Jogorku Kenesh in accordance with the procedure and time-limits established in Article 69 paragraph 2 of the present Constitution and does not submit candidates for government posts, the President shall instruct deputies from another political party to submit a candidate for the office of Prime Minister by forming a coalition of the majority of deputies.

3. If deputies from the political party indicated in paragraph 2 of the present Article do not submit a candidate for the office of Prime Minister to the President or the Prime Minister does not submit the structure of the Government for approval by the Jogorku Kenesh and does not submit candidates for government posts in accordance with the procedure and time-limits stipulated in paragraph 2 of the present Article, the President shall instruct the deputies of a third political party to submit a candidate for the office of Prime Minister by forming a coalition of the majority of deputies.

4. If a candidate for the office of Prime Minister is not submitted to the President in accordance with the procedure and time-limits indicated in the present Constitution, the President shall call early elections to the Jogorku Kenesh and shall form a Government. The Government formed by the President shall act until political parties from the newly elected Jogorku Kenesh form a Government under the procedure provided for in the present Constitution.

Article 71

1. The Government shall be responsible and accountable in its activities to the President and the Jogorku Kenesh within the limits stipulated in the present Constitution.

The President shall have the right to take the floor at sittings of the Government and set its tasks and goals for achieving the basic thrusts of state domestic and foreign policy.

2. The Prime Minister shall present an annual report on the work of the Government to the Jogorku Kenesh.

3. In the light of its examination of the annual report of the Prime Minister the Jogorku Kenesh may consider the question of expressing no-confidence in the Government on the initiative of one-third of the total number of deputies of the Jogorku Kenesh.

4. A resolution expressing no-confidence in the Government or an individual member of Government shall be adopted by a majority of the total number of deputies of the Jogorku Kenesh.

5. The question of a vote of no-confidence in the Government may not be considered by the Jogorku Kenesh in the six months prior to the next presidential elections.

6. Following a vote of no-confidence in the Government, the President shall be entitled to either take a decision on the dismissal of the Government or express disagreement with the decision of the Jogorku Kenesh.

7. If, within three months, the Jogorku Kenesh adopts another decision expressing no-confidence in the Government, the President shall either dismiss the Government or call early elections to the Jogorku Kenesh.

8. If the Jogorku Kenesh expresses a vote of no-confidence in an individual member of Government, the President shall be entitled to either take a decision on the dismissal of the member of Government or express disagreement with the decision of the Jogorku Kenesh.

If, within six months, the Jogorku Kenesh adopts another decision expressing no-confidence in that individual member of Government, the President shall be obliged to dismiss that individual member of Government.

Article 72

1. The Prime Minister, the Government or an individual member of the Government shall have the right to tender their resignation, which shall be accepted or declined by the President.

2. Acceptance of the resignation of the Prime Minister shall result in the resignation of the Government and the heads of administrative departments and other executive authorities.

Acceptance of the resignation of the Government shall result in the resignation of the entire membership of the Government and the heads of administrative departments and other executive authorities.

3. Until a new Government is formed and heads of administrative departments and other executive bodies appointed, the Prime Minister, the members of the Government and heads of administrative departments and other executive bodies shall continue to discharge their duties.

4. In the event of the Prime Minister and the Government resigning, a Government shall be formed in accordance with the procedure and time-limits stipulated in Articles 69-70 of the present Constitution. For the deputies of the political party which received more than 50% of mandates of deputies of the Jogorku Kenesh or, where no party received over 50% of the vote, for the deputies of another political party as provided for in Article 70 of the present Constitution, the time-line for submitting a candidate for the office of Prime Minister to the President shall commence from the day of acceptance of the resignation of the Prime Minister or Government by the President.

5. In the event of a member of the Government resigning or being dismissed, the Prime Minister shall submit a candidate for appointment to the vacant position of member of Government to the President within 5 working days.

Article 73

1. The Government shall decide on all matters of state administration, except where powers of decision are assigned by the Constitution and laws to the competence of the President and the Jogorku Kenesh.

2. The Government:

1) shall ensure enforcement of the Constitution and laws, legal and regulatory acts of the President, resolutions of the Jogorku Kenesh and acts of the Government; and shall implement state domestic and foreign policy;

2) shall implement measures to guarantee lawfulness and civil rights and freedoms, preserve public order and combat crime;

3) shall conduct financial, price, tariff, investment and tax policy;

4) shall prepare the republic budget and submit it to the Jogorku Kenesh and ensure its implementation; shall report to the Jogorku Kenesh on implementation of the republic budget;

5) shall conduct unified state policy in the socio-economic and cultural spheres;

6) shall devise and carry out state-wide programmes for economic, social, scientific and technical and cultural development;

7) shall take measures to secure equal conditions for development of all forms of property and their protection and to manage state property;

8) shall take measures to preserve state sovereignty and territorial integrity and protect the constitutional structure, as well as measures on defence capacity, national and public security and rule of law;

9) shall organise and implement foreign economic activities;

10) shall ensure interaction with civil society;

11) shall exercise other powers assigned to its competence by the Constitution, laws and decrees of the President.

3. The work of the Government shall be dealt with by its Apparatus, whose organisation and operating procedures shall be established by a constitutional law.

Article 74

1. On the basis of and pursuant to the Constitution and laws and legal and regulatory acts of the President and the Jogorku Kenesh, the Government shall issue decrees and instructions and organise, check and secure their implementation.

2. The decrees and instructions of the Government shall be binding throughout the territory of the Kyrgyz Republic.

3. The Government shall manage the activity of the ministries, government committees, administrative departments and other executive bodies outside the structure of ministries and state committees, and also local state administrations.

4. Ministries, state committees, and administrative departments and other executive authorities shall issue orders and instructions within the limits of their competence on the basis of and pursuant to the Constitution, laws, acts of the President, resolutions of the Jogorku Kenesh, decrees and instructions of the Government, and organise, check and ensure their implementation.

5. The Government shall hear reports of the heads of the ministries, state committees, administrative departments and other executive authorities and also heads of local state administrations and shall annul acts of those bodies which contradict the legislation of the Kyrgyz Republic.

SECTION II. Local state administration

Article 75

1. Executive power on the territory of a given administrative territorial unit shall be exercised by the local state administration.

2. The powers, organisation and operating procedures of local state administrations shall be defined by law.

Article 76

1. Local state administrations shall act on the basis of the Constitution, laws and legal and regulatory acts of the President and the Government.

2. Decisions of local state administrations, taken within the limits of their competence, shall be binding on the corresponding territory.

CHAPTER SIX CENTRAL STATE BODIES OF THE KYRGYZ REPUBLIC

SECTION I. Office of the Prosecutor General

Article 77

The Office of the Prosecutor General of the Kyrgyz Republic shall exercise supervision ensuring accurate and uniform implementation of laws and other legal and regulatory acts of the Kyrgyz Republic. Agencies of the Office of the Prosecutor General shall conduct criminal prosecutions and participate in judicial examinations of cases in the cases and under the procedures provided for in law.

SECTION II. National Bank

Article 78

The National Bank shall head the banking system of the Kyrgyz Republic, determine and conduct money and credit policy in the Kyrgyz Republic, devise and implement a unitary currency policy, possess the exclusive right to issue money, and implement various forms and principles of bank financing. The organisation and activities of the National Bank shall be defined by law.

SECTION III. Central Commission on Elections And Referendums

Article 79

The Central Commission on Elections and Referendums shall organise the preparation and conducting of elections and referendums in the Kyrgyz Republic. The organisation and activity of the Central Commission on Elections and Referendums shall be defined by law.

SECTION IV. Chamber of Audit

Article 80

The Chamber of Audit shall carry out audits of the implementation of the republic and local budgets, extra-budgetary resources and the use of state and municipal property. The organisation and activity of the Chamber of Audit shall be defined by law.

SECTION V. Akiykatchy (Ombudsman)

Article 81

Supervision of observance of human and civil rights and freedoms in the Kyrgyz Republic shall be carried out by the Ombudsman (Akiykatchy). The organisation and activity of the Ombudsman (Akiykatchy) shall be defined by law.

CHAPTER SEVEN JUDICIAL AUTHORITY IN THE KYRGYZ REPUBLIC

Article 82

1. Judicial authority in the Kyrgyz Republic shall be exercised solely by a court.

In the cases and under the procedures provided for by law, citizens of the Kyrgyz Republic shall be entitled to participate in the administration of justice.

2. Judicial authority shall be exercised by means of constitutional, civil, criminal, administrative and other forms of legal proceedings.

3. The judicial system of the Kyrgyz Republic shall be established by the Constitution and laws and shall consist of the Constitutional Court, the Supreme Court and local courts. Specialised courts may be established by constitutional law.

The creation of extraordinary courts shall not be permitted.

4. The organisation and operating procedure of the courts shall be defined by law.

Article 83

1. Judges shall be independent and subordinate only to the Constitution and laws.

2. A judge shall enjoy the right of immunity and may not be detained or arrested, subjected to searches or personal inspection, except if he is caught at the scene where a crime has been committed.

Prosecution of a judge of the Constitutional Court or the Supreme Court under criminal and administrative law, administered under judicial procedure, shall be permitted with the consent of the Jogorku Kenesh, while for local court judges it shall be permitted with the consent of the President. The immunity of a judge shall extend to all of his personal and official residences and offices, means of transport and communications, correspondence, property and documents.

3. No one shall have the right to demand a report from a judge on a given court case.

4. A judge shall be provided with social, material and other guarantees of his independence in accordance with his status.

5. Any citizen of the Kyrgyz Republic who is no younger than 35 years of age and no older than 70 years of age and has a higher legal education and no less than 10 years of experience in the legal profession may be a judge in the Constitutional Court.

Any citizen of the Kyrgyz Republic who is no younger than 35 years of age and no older than 70 years of age and has a higher legal education and no less than 10 years of experience in the legal profession, including no less than 5 years of experience as a judge, may be a judge in the Supreme Court.

Judges of the Constitutional Court and the Supreme Court shall be elected by the Jogorku Kenesh at the proposal of the President until they reach the age limit.

The Presidents of the Constitutional Court and Supreme Court and their deputies shall be appointed for a term of five years by the President with the consent of the Jogorku Kenesh from among the judges of the Constitutional Court and Supreme Court elected by the Jogorku Kenesh.

6. Any citizen who is no younger than 30 years of age and no older than 65 years of age and has a higher legal education and no less than 5 years of experience in the legal profession may be a judge in a local court. Additional requirements for candidates to the post of judge in a local court may be established by the Constitutional Law on the status of judges.

Judges of local courts shall be appointed by the President at the proposal of the National Council for the Judiciary for a term of 5 years for the first time and, for subsequent terms, until they reach the age limit.

The President shall appoint presidents of local courts and their deputies from among local judges at the proposal of the National Council on Justice for a term of five years.

7. The status of judges of the Kyrgyz Republic shall be defined by constitutional law.

Article 84

1. Judges of all courts of the Kyrgyz Republic shall occupy their posts and retain their prerogatives as long as their conduct is irreproachable.

2. A judge of the Constitutional Court and a judge of the Supreme Court may be dismissed early from office by a majority vote of no less than two-thirds of the total number of deputies of the Jogorku Kenesh at the proposal of the President.

3. In the event of the death of a judge or him being declared dead or missing, being declared legally incapable, loss of citizenship, renunciation of citizenship or acquisition of another citizenship, the powers of the judge shall be terminated by the body which elected or appointed him, from the date of emergence of grounds in accordance with constitutional law.

4. Selection of candidates for the post of local court judge, proposal for their nomination and transfer (rotation) and suspension and dismissal from office shall be carried out by the National Council for the Judiciary in accordance with the procedure set forth in constitutional law.

5. The National Council for the Judiciary shall be formed from among representatives of the legislative, executive and judicial branches of power and public associations.

6. The organisation and activity of the National Council for the Judiciary and its powers shall be defined by law.

Article 85

1. The Constitutional Court shall be the highest body of judicial power for protection of the Constitution.

2. The Constitutional Court shall consist of nine constitutional court judges.

3. The Constitutional Court:

1) shall declare laws and other legal and regulatory acts unconstitutional if they contradict the Constitution;

- 2) shall render official interpretations of the norms of the Constitution;
  - 3) shall render conclusions as to the constitutionality of presidential elections;
  - 4) shall render conclusions as to the dismissal of the President from office;
  - 5) shall render conclusions on a draft law amending and supplementing the present Constitution in accordance with the provisions of Article 98 of the present Constitution.
4. The decision of the Constitutional Court shall be final and not subject to appeal.

The finding by the Constitutional Court that laws or their provisions are unconstitutional shall annul their application on the territory and also cancel the effect of other legal and regulatory acts based on the laws or provisions deemed unconstitutional, with the exception of judicial acts.

Judicial acts based on norms of laws deemed unconstitutional shall be reviewed by the court in every specific case upon complaints of citizens whose rights and freedoms were affected.

5. The procedure for administering constitutional judicial proceedings shall be regulated by law.

Article 86

1. The Supreme Court shall be the highest body of judicial power in the sphere of civil, criminal and administrative and other legal proceedings within the jurisdiction of local courts and shall supervise the judicial activity of local courts by review of judicial acts on appeals lodged by participants in judicial proceedings under the procedure provided for by law.
2. The Plenum of the Supreme Court shall give explanations on questions of court practice.
3. The acts of the Supreme Court adopted in the exercise of supervision shall be final and not subject to appeal.

Article 87

1. The State shall ensure funding and appropriate conditions for the functioning of courts and the activities of judges.

The funding of courts shall be at the expense of the republic budget and must ensure that full and independent administration of justice is possible.

2. The budget of the judicial system shall be drawn up independently by the judiciary and shall be included in the republic budget in agreement with the executive and legislative powers.

Article 88

1. The examination of cases in all courts shall be open. The hearing of a case in closed session shall be permitted solely in the cases provided for by law. The decision of the court shall be announced publicly.
2. Trial in absentia in criminal or other cases in courts shall not be permitted except in the cases provided for by law.
3. Judicial proceedings shall be based on the adversarial principle and equality of the parties.

4. A judicial act may be annulled, changed or suspended by a court under the procedure established by law.
5. The procedural rights of participants including the right to appeal against decisions, sentences and other judicial acts as well as the procedure for exercising those rights shall be defined by law.

Article 89

1. Acts of courts of the Kyrgyz Republic which have entered into force shall be binding for all state bodies, entities conducting economic activities, public associations, officials and citizens and shall be enforceable throughout the territory of the republic.
2. Failure to implement, improper implementation or the hindering of implementation of judicial acts and also interference with the activities of courts shall incur liability as established by Law.

Article 90

1. The court shall not have the right to apply a legal and regulatory act which contradicts the present Constitution.
2. If, during examination of a case in any judicial instance, there arises a question concerning the constitutionality of the law or other legal and regulatory act on which ruling of the case rests, the court shall send an inquiry to the Constitutional Court.

Article 91

1. Judicial self-regulation shall be used to resolve internal issues concerning the activities of judges.
2. The Congress of Judges and the Council of Judges shall be the bodies of judicial self-regulation in the Kyrgyz Republic.

The Council of Judges shall protect the rights and lawful interests of judges, exercise supervision over the drawing up and implementation of court budgets, organise basic and further training for judges and consider questions of disciplinary proceedings against judges.

3. The organisation and activities of the judicial self-regulatory bodies shall be defined by law.

Article 92

1. Justice shall be administered free of charge in the cases provided for by law and in all cases where the parties to judicial proceedings submit proof that they do not have sufficient means to conduct them.
2. The principles of justice applicable for all courts and judges not specified by the present Constitution shall be established by laws of the Kyrgyz Republic.

CHAPTER EIGHT LOCAL SELF-GOVERNMENT

Article 93

1. Local self-government in the Kyrgyz Republic shall be implemented by local communities and shall enable the population of those communities to resolve local issues autonomously.
2. Local self-government shall be implemented by citizens directly or via elected and other local self-government bodies.
3. Local self-government bodies shall independently manage municipal property, draw up, ratify and implement the local budget, levy local taxes and dues, facilitate the preservation of public order as well as resolving other local issues.
4. Local self-government shall be funded from the corresponding local budget.

Article 94

1. Local self-government bodies shall adopt acts whose implementation shall be binding for their territory, within the limits of their competence as established by the Constitution and the legislation of the Kyrgyz Republic.
2. Local self-government bodies shall be accountable to the State for the observance and implementation of laws and to the local community for the results of their activities.
3. The system of local self-government bodies and officials shall comprise:
  - heads of village districts, urban districts and cities of rayon [regional] significance, town mayors;
  - local keneshes - the representative bodies of local self-government;
  - rural communities [ayil okmotu], municipal and urban communities, mayorships - the executive and administrative bodies of local self-government.
  - other officials and bodies.

Article 95

1. The heads of village districts, urban districts and cities of rayon [region] significance shall be elected by the deputies of the corresponding local keneshes at the proposal of the head of the local state administration under the procedure established by law. Town mayors shall be elected by the deputies of the corresponding local keneshes at the proposal of the President.
2. The deputies of local keneshes shall be elected by citizens resident on the territory of the corresponding administrative territorial unit under the procedure established by law.
3. Local keneshes shall, in accordance with the law, :
  - ratify local budgets, supervise their implementation and also decide on other local issues;
  - ratify programmes for socio-economic development of the local community and social protection of the local population;

- establish local taxes and dues and relief therefrom.

Article 96

1. Local self-government bodies may be assigned state powers, accompanied by the transfer of the material, financial and other means necessary for their exercise. State powers may be delegated to local self-government bodies on the basis of law. Local self-government bodies shall be accountable to state authorities in respect of delegated power.
2. Local self-government bodies shall be responsible to the State for the observance and implementation of laws and to the local community for the results of their activities.
3. State authorities may not interfere with local self-government powers provided for by law.

Article 97

1. The State shall provide support for local self-government.
2. Local self-government bodies shall be entitled to apply for judicial protection in connection with a violation of their rights.

CHAPTER NINE PROCEDURE FOR ADOPTING THE CONSTITUTION, NEW STATUTORY WORDING OF THE CONSTITUTION OR A LAW AMENDING AND SUPPLEMENTING THE PRESENT CONSTITUTION

Article 98

1. The Constitution, new statutory wording of the Constitution or a law amending and supplementing the present Constitution may be adopted by referendum (nationwide vote) called by the President with the consent of the majority of the total number of deputies of the Jogorku Kenesh.

In such a referendum the Constitution, new statutory wording of the Constitution or a law amending and supplementing the present Constitution shall be deemed adopted if it is voted for by over half of the voters taking part in the ballot, on condition that over half of the voters enrolled on the electoral registers turned out.

2. Amendments and supplements to the provisions of chapters three to eight of the present Constitution may be adopted by the Jogorku Kenesh at the proposal of the President or of the Jogorku Kenesh itself or on the initiative of no fewer than 300,000 voters.

Amendments and supplements to the present Constitution adopted by the Jogorku Kenesh may be examined in the light of a conclusion of the Constitutional Court.

3. The Constitutional Court shall render its conclusion no later than three months from the date of submission by the Jogorku Kenesh to the Constitutional Court of the draft law amending and supplementing the present Constitution.

If the conclusion of the Constitutional Court on the draft law amending and supplementing the present Constitution is negative, the draft law in question shall be returned by the Jogorku

Kenesh to its initiator. The rejected draft law may be resubmitted to the Jogorku Kenesh no earlier than one year later.

4. The Jogorku Kenesh, taking into account the conclusion of the Constitutional Court, shall adopt a law amending and supplementing the present Constitution no later than 6 months after receiving the conclusion of the Constitutional Court.

The text of a draft law amending and supplementing the present Constitution may be amended in the course of its discussion in the Jogorku Kenesh on the basis of the conclusion of the Constitutional Court and with the formal consent of its initiator.

A law amending and supplementing the present Constitution shall be adopted by the Jogorku Kenesh by a majority of no less than two-thirds of the total number of deputies of the Jogorku Kenesh after the holding of no fewer than two readings with an interval of three months between readings.

At the demand of the majority of the total number of deputies of the Jogorku Kenesh a law amending and supplementing the present Constitution may be put to a referendum.

5. Adoption of the Constitution, new statutory wording of the Constitution or a law amending and supplementing the present Constitution shall be prohibited during a state of emergency or war.

6. The adopted Constitution, new statutory wording of the Constitution or law amending and supplementing the present Constitution shall be subject to signature by the President of the Kyrgyz Republic."

SECTION II

1. The provisions of the first indent of Article 54 paragraph 2 and Article 62 paragraph 4 of the Constitution stipulated in the present Law shall be applicable to the newly convened Jogorku Kenesh.

Laws and other legal and regulatory acts valid prior to the entry into force of the present Law shall be applicable insofar as they do not contradict the present Law.

Laws regulating procedure for constitutional, civil, criminal and administrative judicial proceedings shall be valid until they are brought into line with the Constitution.

2. Legal and regulatory acts and other acts adopted by state bodies, local self-government bodies and their officials during the period since 9 November 2006, with the exception of chapter 16-1 of the Kyrgyz Republic Law "On the Rules of procedure of the Jogorku Kenesh of the Kyrgyz Republic", Kyrgyz Republic Law no. 180 "On the new statutory wording of the Constitution of the Kyrgyz Republic" of 9 November 2006 and Kyrgyz Republic Law no. 2 "On the new statutory wording of the Constitution of the Kyrgyz Republic" of 15 January 2007, shall retain their legal force until they are brought into line with the Constitution of the Kyrgyz Republic.

Chapter 16-1 of the Kyrgyz Republic Law "On the Rules of procedure of the Jogorku Kenesh of the Kyrgyz Republic", Kyrgyz Republic Law no. 180 "On the new statutory wording of the Constitution of the Kyrgyz Republic" of 9 November 2006 and Kyrgyz Republic Law no. 2 "On the new statutory wording of the Constitution of the Kyrgyz Republic" of 15 January 2007 shall be declared invalid.

3. From the date of entry into force of the present Law, Kyrgyz Republic Law no. 40 "On the new statutory wording of the Constitution of the Kyrgyz Republic" of 18 February 2003 shall be declared invalid.

4. The President elected by the people before the adoption of the present Law shall retain his powers until expiry of the term for which he was elected.

The President shall exercise his powers taking into account the provisions of the present Law.

5. The Jogorku Kenesh and its deputies elected by the people before the adoption of the present Law shall retain their powers until the forming of the new Jogorku Kenesh under the procedure established by the present Constitution.

6. Until the forming of a new Government under the procedure established by the present Constitution, a candidate for the office of Prime Minister shall be determined by the Jogorku Kenesh by secret ballot requiring the majority of the total number of deputies on the basis of proposals by deputy factions and groups and shall be submitted to the President for appointment. If the Jogorku Kenesh does not determine and submit a candidate for the office of Prime Minister to the President for appointment within 5 working days after the date of entry into force of the present Law, the President shall appoint the Prime Minister from among the candidates proposed by deputy factions and groups. Members of the Government shall be appointed by the President at the proposal of the Prime Minister.

Upon the entry into force of the present Law, the Government in place shall resign and continue to discharge its duties until a Government is formed in accordance with the present paragraph.

Until the forming of a new Jogorku Kenesh in accordance with the procedure established in the Constitution, the structure of the Government proposed by the Prime Minister shall be ratified by law by the acting members of the Jogorku Kenesh.

Heads of administrative departments under the Government and other executive bodies and heads of local self-government bodies appointed prior to the adoption of the present Law shall retain their powers until a Government is formed in accordance with the present paragraph.

7. The Presidents, deputy presidents and judges of the Constitutional Court and the Supreme Court and judges of local courts shall retain their powers until expiry of the term for which they were elected or appointed. The Presidents, deputy presidents and judges of the Constitutional Court and the Supreme Court and local courts elected or appointed in the period between 9 November 2006 and the entry into force of the present Law shall retain their powers until expiry of the term for which they were elected or appointed.

Vacant posts shall be filled in accordance with the Constitution.

Until the forming of the membership of the National Council for the Judiciary in accordance with the law, the membership of the National Council for the Judiciary under the President as formed by the President shall retain its powers.

8. The Chairman and auditors of the Chamber of Audit, the Chairman and members of the Central Commission on Elections and Referendums, the Prosecutor General, his deputies and the military prosecutor, the Chairman and members of the board of the National Bank and the Ombudsman (Akiykatchy) elected or appointed prior to the adoption of the present Law shall retain their powers. Vacant posts shall be filled in accordance with the procedure established by the Constitution.

9. Deputies of local keneshes, town mayors and heads of municipal communities and rural communities [ayil okmotu] shall retain their powers until expiry of the term for which they were elected.

SECTION III

The present Law shall enter into force from the date of its official publication.

The Government of the Kyrgyz Republic shall submit draft laws resulting from this Law to the Jogorku Kenesh within six months.

