DECREE amending Article 5 of the Constitution of the Republic of Lebanon, concerning the national flag.—
Beyrouth, December 7, 1943⁽¹⁾

(Translation)

ARTICLE 5 of the Lebanese Constitution⁽²⁾ is amended as follows:—

“The flag of the Republic of Lebanon is composed of horizontal bands of red, white and red, with a green cedar in the centre of the white band. The white band is equal in width to the two red bands combined. The Cedar occupies one-third of the total length of the white band, and its root touches the lower and its summit the upper red band”.

BISHARA KHALIL EL-KHOURY.
